ORDER APPOINTING PRO BONO COUNSEL AND STAYING PROCEEDINGS

On March 12, 2012, I denied without prejudice Plaintiff's motion for appointment of counsel. See Doc. #10. Since that time, the Court entered an order (Doc. #25) adopting my Report and Recommendation (Doc. #19) and denying summary judgment to both Plaintiff and Defendants.

The Plaintiff is a pro se prison inmate who, up to this point, has filed hand-written pleadings that, while describing the facts as he sees them, show a lack of understanding of the legal processes and procedures that would have to be followed for this case to be adjudicated efficiently and fairly. It would benefit not only the Plaintiff, but the Defendants and the Court if Plaintiff were given the benefit of representation by an attorney assigned under the Court's pro bono program.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that appointment of counsel be GRANTED to Plaintiff, and that the Court obtain an attorney who will undertake representation as probono counsel.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all proceedings in this case be STAYED for a period of 45 days so that pro bono counsel may be obtained.

Dated: October 3, 2013 s/ R. Steven Whalen
